Accent on Worship Cantor David Cherwien The Great 50 Days

We're in the "high" season, the great 50 days of Easter! From Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday spans the churches highest celebration. The Liturgy is at its fullest.

From season to season, it is what we do at the entrance of the liturgy that gives a season its uniqueness, bringing out the nature of each. Advent has a simple Kyrie in place of a procession hymn, Epiphany we sing the hymn of the Angels at the birth of Christ, "Glory to God in the Highest," in Lent we alternate between the Great Litany and an extended Kyrie and fast from the word "Alleluia," and in Ordinary Time (for about 6 months!), we mostly sing only an entrance hymn, with no Kyrie or additional hymn of praise.

Yet for the Easter Season, the entrance rite includes the Procession Hymn (with full procession), Kyrie and Hymn of Praise, "This is the Feast." Indeed, we carry on with praise for the Risen Christ sometimes for nearly 10 minutes! Our praise should be so exuberant, that perhaps we should sing the final note of "This is the Feast," wipe our brows and say "Wow! That was hard work, but we meant it!"

We observe the full Gospel Procession, reading the Gospel from amidst the people, symbolizing the incarnation: God with us - in this case, literally among the people. To move the procession there and back we've adopted the song "Be Not Afraid" with worshippers youngest and perhaps oldest among us singing whole-heartedly together; singing "out with joy," accompanied or unaccompanied!

During the Easter season, we also use different posture for the prayers of the people - we remain standing, as an "Easter posture." We also make use of incense, like our prayers, rising to heaven, and awakening all of our senses.

This coming Sunday is the Fourth Sunday of Easter (of seven). It is also known as "Shepherd Sunday." The Gospel is John 10:11-18: "I am the Good Shepherd," and the Psalmody is Psalm 23. On the 40th day of Easter, (this year, Thursday, May 10, 2018) we observe the Feast of the Ascension.

May our celebrations continue, so that we wipe our brows and say, "Whew - but all this work is worth it!" (Or should I say, "worthy of it"?)

- Cantor David Cherwien

Check Out This Beautiful Update on the Chibok Girls

As we continue to pray for the Chibok girls and others taken by Boko Haram, this beautiful piece has been put together to show how the rescued girls are recovering. Take a moment to view this:

<https://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2018/04/11/world/africa/nigeria-boko-haram-girls.html>

When Brad Holt was traveling and teaching in Nigeria last fall, he saw the girls at the University, but was, of course, not allowed to make contact with them.

We continue to pray for their healing.

Book Discussion

The Book Discussion Group will not meet this Saturday, April 14. They will move discussion of their next books, The Stranger by Albert Camus, and The Meursault Investigation by Kamel Daoud to their May meeting on May 12. For the June 9 meeting, they'll read The Spire, by William Golding.

The Book Discussion Group meets on the second Saturday of each month at 10:00 a.m. in the West Assembly area.

All readers welcome!

Thursday Evening Study

"Beloved, God's Chosen?" is the title of the Thursday evening Bible study that began on Apr. 12. Pr. Crippen is leading this 6-week study that hopes to look at Scripture with fresh eyes on the questions of salvation: what is God doing in salvation? What does it mean for us? What does God think about us? What happens at the cross? How and why and when does God forgive our sins? This Bible study meets in the Chapel Lounge from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Thursday evenings, for six weeks, and all are welcome.

As always, there will be a light supper preceding the study each week.

Sunday Adult Forum

• This Sunday, April 22

"God is King: Wrestling with a Metaphor in the Psalms," part two of a two-part series presented by Vicar Jessica Christy.

The language of God's kingship is central to scripture, but it can be a fraught metaphor for the modern church. These two sessions will examine the metaphor's range of meaning within the psalms and its implications for our worship life together.

• Next Sunday, April 29:

"Authority," presented by Paul C. Stone.

How can free people experience, let alone understand it? How may we contemplate individuals striving for liberty without committees?

Paul Stone is lecturer in American political and institutional history at the Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs at the University of Minnesota. He has degrees from Harvard and Duke Divinity School and is a licensed lay reader in the Episcopal Church.

Earth Day Clean Up

April 21, 9:30 am - Noon

Let's join our neighborhood and show some Springtime love to our streets! On Saturday April 21 from 9:30-12:00, the Powderhorn Park neighborhood is having an Earth Day Clean-up. We will work in teams to do some needed cleaning up around our building - if the snow has finally left us!

Mount Olive folks will meet at 9:30 am at church and head out to clean up. Bags, some gloves, and good company supplied. Then stick around for the community meal at 12:00 if you can. See you there!

You're Invited!

The family of Naomi Peterson will host a reception to celebrate her 90th birthday following the second liturgy this Sunday, April 22. They would welcome your attendance.
