Accent on Worship

Anna Scott

Her name is Joy. She has a calming beauty and a comforting presence. Last week she called me to ask for help with a funeral for her friend whose daughter had unexpectedly passed away. When I spoke with her for the first time she seemed familiar and said she knew Cha. We worked out a way to help with funeral costs and she came in to pick up a check. It was then that she told me she had been to Mount Olive before by the grace of God.

A few months back Joy was in an overwhelming financial position. She had a paycheck and knew exactly how much she needed for regular expenses, but her tabs were expiring in the next few days. As a black woman she did not rely on the "10 day forgiveness" and couldn't afford them at the time. In tears, she was driving on Chicago Ave - not her usual route - when she looked over at Mount Olive and a voice told her to "go on in that church." Obedient, she found her way in through a back door that workers had open and met Cha. I was not in that day, so she told Cha her story and Cha, moved and convinced, asked Pastor Crippen to help her. Just the day before, someone here had handed Pastor an envelope of cash to use to help people. He gave her what she needed and she left the building. A short time later she was back, this time with a receipt for the tabs and tears of relief. Joy says she left the church "with a peace that is hard to understand."

Now this time Joy sat across from me she again thanked the church and leaned forward in her chair and shook her head saying, "This really gives me hope. It gives me hope that there are still some people that will help." I assured her that we are glad we can help too, and that I'm grateful that we could offer her some peace. As she got up to bring her friend the check, she said again how thankful she was for this church saying, "arms were open to me. Arms were open."

"Beloved, God's Chosen?" is the title of the Thursday evening Bible study that began on Apr. 12. Pr. Crippen is leading this 6-week study that hopes to look at Scripture with fresh eyes on the questions of salvation: what is God doing in salvation? What does it mean for us? What does God think about us? What happens at the cross? How and why and when does God forgive our sins? This Bible study meets in the Chapel Lounge from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Thursday evenings, for six weeks, and all are welcome.

As always, there will be a light supper preceding the study each week.

Sunday Adult Forum

• This Sunday, May 6:

"The Feast of the Ascension," presented by Dwight Penas - The Feast of the Ascension is the de facto feast day of Mount Olive Church, because it was from the Mount of Olives that Jesus "ascended into heaven." Mount Olive is one of the few Protestant churches which continues to observe the feast, which is considered one of the "ecumenical" feasts of the Christian calendar. But what are we to make of this celebration? Up to where did Jesus "ascend"? How are we to balance that affirmation with our knowledge that the Hubble telescope has seen 10-15 billion light years out into space without finding his throne? We will spend some time considering the meaning of the Ascension in the church's history and liturgy.

Dwight Penas is co-convenor of the Adult Forums at Mount Olive and serves on the board of the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology.

• Next Sunday, May 15:

Mother's Day Recital, presented by Mount Olive youth

The Ascension of Our Lord
Thursday, May 10
Holy Eucharist
at 7:00 pm
All are welcome.

Are You Missing A Pan, Dish, or Bowl?

If so, there's a fairly good chance that it is here at church! There are many, many dishes which have been left here recently.

Plan to take a look on Sunday when you are here and retrieve any that may be yours. They are all on a table in the East Assembly Room - we will leave them there for a couple of weeks.

Christ is Risen!

Update from Longer Table Lending

Progress is moving right along to launch the no-interest loan program, Longer Table Lending. Our goal is to be up and running in June and we're in a great spot to get there. Recently we were able to:

- Sign a Fiscal Sponsorship Agreement between Mount Olive and LTL- allowing us to function under Mount Olive's non-profit status and officially accept donations : )
- File our Articles of Incorporation with the State of Minnesota, recognizing us as an official entity (we exist!)
- Open a bank account, buy a website domain, begin writing a grant, develop a logo, and much more.

Thank you for your encouragement so far, and we're excited to share the journey with you. There will be a presentation at the Congregational Meeting on April 29 for more information. We are looking for an administrator (2-4 hours a week by appointment), board members, skills in marketing and accounting, and of course financial support. If you are able and interested in offering your time, talents, or treasures to this project, please contact Anna 612-827-5919, or by email to neighborhood@mountolivechurch.org, or speak with the LTL team: Carol Martinson, Karen Mohrlant, Neil Hering, Thomas Fenner, Tom Graves, and Ginny Agresti.

The MAYDAY PARADE is around the corner - literally!
On Sunday, May 6, the parade leaves Little Earth at Noon.
Tree of Life Ceremony in Powderhorn Park starts at 3:00 p.m.
Community workshops are in full swing! Drop by Heart of the Beast Theater on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays to contribute to creating the parade. Make a donation to help make the Parade and Festival happen.

Property Committee News

Our new geothermal system is working well. The coldest month in our heating year was January, colder than last year by about 9% in terms of heating needs. Comparing January 2017 on the old boilers to January 2018 on our new geothermal system shows some great results.

If we still had the old system, we would have used 4,521 therms of natural gas. Instead, we only used 2,271 therms, so we cut our gas consumption almost in half. (Remember, we still heat the parish house with gas.) That's 26.4 tons of carbon dioxide that did not go up our chimney and into the atmosphere that month!

Instead of burning that 2,250 therms of gas to produce the 225 million BTUs of heat we needed, we used about 9,600 kWh of electricity (= 32.7 million BTUs) to pump 192 million BTUs of heat out of the ground under our parking lot and into the church.

Are we saving money? Yes. Again in January, the gas bill was almost $1,500 less than we would have expected on the old system. Our electric bill was about $1,100 higher (electricity is more expensive per BTU than gas). That's a net savings of about $400 for January.

We are still adjusting the system and have no experience yet on the air conditioning side so we will have a better picture as time goes on, but for now, this is all good news. Our utility bills are lower and we have substantially reduced our carbon footprint!

Summer Worship Time Changes to Ten

The Vestry has approved the Worship Committee's recommendation to move the summer Sunday Eucharist time to 10:00 a.m. for this year. The summer schedule runs from Memorial Day weekend, Sunday, May 27, through Labor Day weekend, Sunday, Sept. 2. This change is part of a broader conversation about our Sunday Eucharist times. With geothermal air conditioning in the nave, one of the reasons for a single summer liturgy, high heat later in the morning, is changed. But we also have heard from some of our older members that the 9:30 a.m. time is a little too early for them to be able to get here, so this temporary change seemed wise.

This spring, Worship Committee had a long discussion about whether we might keep our two service schedule for the whole year, or if there were other reasons for one liturgy during the summer, and what would be a good time for that single liturgy. The committee is working on a way to get a sense of what the congregation feels about the question, so watch for opportunities for feedback. In the meantime, all are welcome to reach Rob Ruff, director of the Worship Committee, at worship@mountolivechurch.org, with any thoughts.
