

The First Sunday of Advent, year B

November 29, 2020 + Mount Olive Lutheran Church

Focus on the Season: The First Sunday of Advent, year B

The new Church Year begins with a wake-up call: Christ is coming soon! Paul and Jesus challenge us to wake from sleep, for we know neither the day nor hour of God's coming. Though we vigilantly watch for the promised day of salvation, our mission, what it means to be awake, is carrying God's promises in our bodies, hands, gifts, voices in this fragile, broken world that also yearns for light, life, and salvation.

Word

GREETING

- ☐ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- ☑ And also with you.

HYMN: ELW 436, "Wake, Awake, for Night is Flying"

Sung at Mount Olive on the Ninth Sunday after Pentecost, Lect. 19 C, August 11, 2019. Introduction by Paul O. Manz

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. By your merciful protection awaken us to the threatening dangers of our sins, and keep us blameless until the coming of your new day, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

FIRST READING: Isaiah 64:1-9; reader – Adam Krueger, lector

- ¹ O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence –
- ² as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil –
to make your name known to your adversaries,
so that the nations might tremble at your presence!
- ³ When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect,

you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.

- ⁴ From ages past no one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who works for those who wait for him.
- ⁵ You meet those who gladly do right,
those who remember you in your ways.
But you were angry, and we sinned;
because you hid yourself we transgressed.
- ⁶ We have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth.
We all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.
- ⁷ There is no one who calls on your name,
or attempts to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,
and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.
- ⁸ Yet, O LORD, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
- ⁹ Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD,
and do not remember iniquity forever.
Now consider, we are all your people.

PSALMODY: Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19 (sing along with the leaders; the tone is printed in the video)

- ¹ Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph ¹ like a flock; * shine forth, you that are enthroned up- ¹ on the cherubim.
- ² In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, ¹ and Manasseh, * stir up your strength and ¹ come to help us.
- ³ Restore ¹ us, O God; * let your face shine upon us, and we ¹ shall be saved.
- ⁴ O LORD ¹ God of hosts, * how long will your anger fume when your ¹ people pray?
- ⁵ You have fed them with the ¹ bread of tears; * you have given them bowls of ¹ tears to drink.
- ⁶ You have made us the derision ¹ of our neighbors, * and our enemies laugh ¹ us to scorn.
- ⁷ Restore us, O ¹ God of hosts; * let your face shine upon us, and we ¹ shall be saved.
- ¹⁷ Let your hand be upon the one at ¹ your right hand, * the one you have made so strong ¹ for yourself.
- ¹⁸ And so will we never turn a- ¹ way from you; * give us life, that we may call up- ¹ on your name.
- ¹⁹ Restore us, O LORD ¹ God of hosts; * let your face shine upon us, and we ¹ shall be saved.

Recorded on the First Sunday of Advent, year B, December 3, 2017. Antiphon sung by the Mount Olive Cantorei

SECOND READING: I Corinthians 1:3-9; reader – Consuelo Crosby, assisting minister

Paul writes: ³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind – ⁶ just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you – ⁷ so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Sung before and after the reading

Sung at Mount Olive on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, year B, December 24, 2017.

HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 13:24-37

Jesus said: ²⁴“But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, ²⁵and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory. ²⁷Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

²⁸“From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. ³⁰I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.

³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

³²“But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³³Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. ³⁴It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his servants in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. ³⁵Therefore, keep awake – for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, ³⁶or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. ³⁷And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

SERMON

Sweet Coming

Pastor Joseph Crippen

Silence for reflection.

HYMN: LBW 38, “O Savior, Rend the Heavens Wide”

Sung at Mount Olive at the Advent Procession Service, November 27, 2016.

INTERCESSORY PRAYERS

*Our Assisting Minister for today, Consuelo Gutierrez-Crosby, has prepared intercessory prayers for us to pray this morning. As our prayers rise up from all over the metro area and beyond, once more we are joined together in Christ. (Our weekly prayer list is on the last page.) Response: Hear our prayer.

PEACE Please greet one another with Christ's peace.

OFFERING

There are ways to continue to give of your gifts to our shared work at Mount Olive during this time apart. The Olive Branch has suggested ways both electronic and by mail. See:

November 30: St. Andrew, Apostle – The first of the disciples to be called by Jesus, Andrew quickly began to bring others to the Savior, including Simon Peter. The Bible also shows him leading some Greeks to meet Jesus, and he brought forward the boy with five loaves and two fish, with which Jesus fed thousands.

December 3: St. Francis Xavier, missionary to Asia, died 1552 – A native of the Basque region of Spain, Xavier became a missionary to India, Southeast Asia, Japan, and the Philippines. He also helped to found the Society of Jesus (Jesuits).

December 4: St. John of Damascus, theologian and hymnwriter, died around 749 – A monk in an abbey near Jerusalem, John wrote many hymns as well as theological works. One of his works, The Fount of Wisdom, remained influential for centuries.
