

The Second Sunday of Advent, year B

December 6, 2020 + Mount Olive Lutheran Church

Focus on the Season: The Second Sunday of Advent, year B

John stands by the waters of baptism as herald of the coming of God. He calls us to turn around, to find the way of the Lord, the way where “righteousness and peace” meet with a kiss and God’s salvation comes to all. Today Isaiah calls us all to be heralds with John, to lift up our voices fearlessly and say with our lives, “See, your God is coming!” in a world in need of God’s justice and peace.

Word

GREETING

- ☐ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- ☑ And also with you.

HYMN: ELW 249, "On Jordan's Bank the Baptist's Cry"

Sung at Mount Olive on the Third Sunday of Advent, year B, December 14, 2014.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Stir up our hearts, Lord God, to prepare the way of your only Son. By his coming strengthen us to serve you with purified lives; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

FIRST READING: Isaiah 40:1-11; reader – Gene Janssen, lector

- ¹ Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God.
- ² Speak tenderly to Jerusalem,
and cry to her
that she has served her term,
that her penalty is paid,
that she has received from the LORD's hand
double for all her sins.

- ³ A voice cries out:
 “In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD,
 make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
- ⁴ Every valley shall be lifted up,
 and every mountain and hill be made low;
 the uneven ground shall become level,
 and the rough places a plain.
- ⁵ Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
 and all people shall see it together,
 for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”
- ⁶ A voice says, “Cry out!”
 And I said, “What shall I cry?”
 All people are grass,
 their constancy is like the flower of the field.
- ⁷ The grass withers, the flower fades,
 when the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
 surely the people are grass.
- ⁸ The grass withers, the flower fades;
 but the word of our God will stand forever.
- ⁹ Get you up to a high mountain,
 O Zion, herald of good tidings;
 lift up your voice with strength,
 O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings,
 lift it up, do not fear;
 say to the cities of Judah, “Here is your God!”
- ¹⁰ See, the Lord GOD comes with might,
 and his arm rules for him;
 his reward is with him,
 and his recompense before him.
- ¹¹ He will feed his flock like a shepherd;
 he will gather the lambs in his arms,
 and carry them in his bosom,
 and gently lead the mother sheep.

PSALMODY: Psalm 85:1-2, 17-19 (sing along with the leaders; the tone is printed in the video)

- ¹ You have been gracious to your | land, O LORD; * you have restored the good for- | tune of Jacob.
- ² You have forgiven the iniquity | of your people * and blotted out | all their sins.
- ⁸ I will listen to what the LORD | God is saying; * for you speak peace to your faithful people and to those who turn their | hearts to you.
- ⁹ Truly, your salvation is very near to | those who fear you, * that your glory may dwell | in our land.
- ¹⁰ Steadfast love and faithfulness have | met together; * righteousness and peace have | kissed each other.
- ¹¹ Faithfulness shall spring up | from the earth, * and righteousness shall look | down from heaven.
- ¹² The LORD will indeed | grant prosperity, * and our land will | yield its increase.
- ¹³ Righteousness shall go be- | fore the LORD * and shall prepare for | God a pathway.

Recorded on November 23, 2020; Paul Rudoj, tenor.

SECOND READING: 2 Peter 3:8-15a; reader – Kathy Thurston, assisting minister

⁸ But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day. ⁹ The Lord is not slow about his promise, as some think of slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance. ¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and everything that is done on it will be disclosed.

¹¹ Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness, ¹² waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire? ¹³ But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home.

¹⁴ Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish; ¹⁵ and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Sung before and after the reading

Sung at Mount Olive on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, year B, December 24, 2017.

HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 1:1-8

¹ The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. ² As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, “See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way; ³ the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.’ ”

⁴ John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵ And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁶ Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷ He proclaimed, “The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. ⁸ I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

SERMON

Cry Out!

- We remember the saints who have gone before us:

December 6: St. Nicholas, Bishop of Myra, died around 342 - Little is known about Nicholas, except that he was a bishop in present-day Turkey. According to legend, he was famous for his giving to the poor, and so has become a symbol of anonymous gift-giving.

December 7: St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, died 397 - While a governor of northern Italy, Ambrose was elected bishop of Milan on the same day he was baptized. He was a famous preacher, a writer of hymns we still sing today, and helped lead St. Augustine to faith.
