

Transfiguration of Our Lord

February 14, 2021 ✝ Mount Olive Lutheran Church

Focus on the Season: The Transfiguration of Our Lord, year B

This Epiphany festival concludes the cycle of the year that is suffused with the image of light. In Advent, the church prays for the light of God's justice in the world. At Christmas, we celebrate this light in Christ, and throughout the weeks of Epiphany, we see this light shining in all corners of the world. From this mountain of transfiguring light today, Christ goes forth to Jerusalem and his cross, to lead us to the Passover from death to life.

Word

GREETING

- ☞ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- ☞ And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty God, the resplendent light of your truth shines from the mountaintop into our hearts. Transfigure us by your beloved Son, and illumine the world with your image, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

FIRST READING: 2 Kings 2:1-12; reader – Dixie Berg, lector

¹ Now when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. ² Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. ³ The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent."

⁴ Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. ⁵ The company of prophets who were at

Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?” And he answered, “Yes, I know; be silent.”

⁶Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on. ⁷Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. ⁸Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

⁹When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you.” Elisha said, “Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.” ¹⁰He responded, “You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.” ¹¹As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. ¹²Elisha kept watching and crying out, “Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!” But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

PSALMODY: Psalm 50:1-6

¹The mighty one, God the ¹ LORD, has spoken; * calling the earth from the rising of the sun ¹ to its setting.

²Out of Zion, perfect ¹ in its beauty, * God shines ¹ forth in glory.

³Our God will come and will ¹ not keep silence; * with a consuming flame before, and round about a ¹ raging storm.

⁴God calls the heavens and the earth ¹ from above * to witness the judgment ¹ of the people.

⁶The heavens declare the rightness ¹ of God’s cause, * for it is God ¹ who is judge.

Sung at Mount Olive on The Transfiguration of Our Lord, year B, February 11, 2018.

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 4:3-6; reader – Gretchen Campbell-Johnson, assisting minister

Paul writes: ³ Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴ In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵ For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus’ sake. ⁶ For it is the God who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

GRADUAL HYMN: ELW 315, “How Good, Lord, to Be Here!”

Stanzas 1-2 are sung before the reading. Stanzas 3-5 are sung following the reading.

Sung at Mount Olive on The Transfiguration of Our Lord, year C, February 10, 2013.

HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 9:2-9 [10]

² Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, ³ and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. ⁴ And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. ⁵ Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁶ He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. ⁷ Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, “This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!” ⁸ Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

- We remember the saints who have gone before us:

February 14: St. Cyril, monk, died 869; St. Methodius, bishop, died 885; missionaries to the Slavs – These two brothers from Thessalonika, Greece, were monks and were sent to bring Christianity to the Slavic people. In the course of their work they created a written language, inventing the Cyrillic alphabet for it, and translated the Bible and the liturgy.

February 18: Martin Luther, renewer of the church, died 1546 – Though he began his adult church life as a simple Augustinian monk, Luther challenged the abuses he saw in the church, and his work eventually led to the Protestant Reformation. Luther's accomplishments included liturgical reform, translation of the Bible, and creation of the Small and Large Catechisms.
