

The Fourth Sunday in Lent, year B

March 14, 2021 + Mount Olive Lutheran Church

Focus on the Season: The Fourth Sunday in Lent, year B

In today's gospel reading, Jesus compares himself to the serpent in the wilderness, lifted up before the people of Israel so they could be healed. Jesus now will be lifted up on the cross so that all who hold to him will be healed. God sent the Son, not to condemn, but to save the world. We who have heard the words of love and mercy in today's scriptures go forth to speak with forgiveness rather than condemnation, making the immeasurable riches of God's grace in Christ our Lord known to all the world.

HYMN: "Kyrie" (Orbis Factor)

Sung at Mount Olive on the Second Sunday in Lent, year A, March 8, 2020. Mount Olive Cantorei, Chad Fothergill, organist.

Word

GREETING

- ☐ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- ☑ And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

O God, rich in mercy, by the humiliation of your Son you lifted up this fallen world and rescued us from the hopelessness of death. Lead us into your light, that all our deeds may reflect your love, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

FIRST READING: Numbers 21:4-9; reader – Matt McCuen, lector

⁴From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. ⁵The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." ⁶Then the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. ⁷The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. ⁸And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." ⁹So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

PSALMODY: Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

¹Give thanks to the LORD, for the LORD is good, * for God's mercy endures forever.
²Let the redeemed of the LORD proclaim * that God redeemed them from the hand of the foe,
³gathering them in from the lands; * from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
¹⁷Some were fools and took rebellious paths; * through their sins they were afflicted.
¹⁸They loathed all manner of food * and drew near to death's door.
¹⁹Then in their trouble they cried to the LORD * and you delivered them from their distress.
²⁰You sent forth your word and healed them * and rescued them from the grave.
²¹Let them give thanks to you, LORD, for your steadfast love * and your wonderful works for all people.
²²Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving * and tell of your deeds with shouts of joy.

Recorded by members of the Cantorei on Wednesday, March 3, 2021.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 2:1-10; reader – Rose Thompson, assisting minister

Paul writes: ¹You were dead through the trespasses and sins ²in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. ³All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. ⁴But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us ⁵even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God— ⁹not the result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: “Return to the Lord”

Sung at Mount Olive on the Second Sunday in Lent, year A, March 16, 2014.

HOLY GOSPEL: John 3:14-21

Jesus said, ¹⁴“Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. ¹⁶For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who trusts in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

¹⁷“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. ¹⁸Those who trust in him are not judged; but those who do not trust are judged already, because they have not trusted in the name of the only Son of God. ¹⁹

And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. ²⁰For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. ²¹But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

- We remember the saints who have gone before us:

March 17: St. Patrick, bishop, missionary to Ireland, died 461 – A native of Britain, Patrick was kidnapped by pirates at age sixteen and sold into slavery in Ireland. After a few years, he escaped, returned home, and entered the ministry. Returning to Ireland, he successfully served as a bishop and missionary there.

March 19: St. Joseph, Guardian of Jesus – Though the Bible tells us little about the husband of Jesus' mother Mary, we know that he was a carpenter or builder by trade. He is also shown as being devoted both to God and to Mary and Jesus. It is assumed that he died before Jesus became an adult.
