Conductor John Eliot Gardner declares the opening chorus of Cantata 78, Jesu, der du meine Seele, an equal of the opening choruses of Bach's settings of the Passion "in terms of scale, intensity, and power of expression."

The Bach-Tage soloists, orchestra, and conference participants will perform Cantata 78, as well as a beautiful setting of the Magnificat by Johann Pachelbel during this service, which concludes Bach-Tage.

The musicians of the Bach-Tage orchestra are all specialists in the performance of baroque music and perform on period instruments or replicas of them.
