Accent on Worship

Jim Bargmann

We all have something.

"Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

"For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God."

"Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

We all have something, either in our own internal dialog, or something identified and pointed out by others, that could or should exclude us from a calling by God.

At least according to the human mind.

Each of these phrases are a part of our readings for this upcoming Sunday. Spoken by Isaiah, Paul, and Simon Peter, respectively, they represent people who came face to face with God and worried that they were unworthy not even of a calling, but to be in the very presence of God. And yet, all were called into service under God's reign to do great things.

I would posit that many if not all of you have felt the same at some point in your lives. I know I have. Many times. But take comfort in these recountings of callings, friends. All are useful in God's reign, in God's work. Like Isaiah, Paul, Simon Peter, and so many others, God does the work of cleaning, purifying, and preparing. And the Spirit herself calls us all to service. It is with those eyes, the eyes of God, that we can begin to see ourselves and each other, as vital parts the work of God.

Neighborhood Ministries Partner of the Month

Walk-In Counseling Center provides “free, easily accessible mental health counseling to people with urgent needs and few service options.” Counselors work with people struggling with depression, anxiety, chemical dependency, domestic violence, and many other emotional and interpersonal concerns. Walk-In Counseling is an active and vital part of our neighborhood, operating out of a beautifully converted house at 24th and Chicago. Through the pandemic, Walk-In has continued to provide their vital services through electronic means, protecting both the physical and mental health of their clients and staff.

Mount Olive has chosen to support each of our Partners of the Month through a yearly contribution from our budget, but on top of that, we encourage any member who wishes to contribute over and above our budgeted amount to those partners doing work in their areas of passion and concern. You can do this using your pink offering envelopes or through our online giving system. All additional contributions to our partner of the month will be distributed to the partner for the month in which the contribution is received.

Learning About Afghanistan

As our Afghan family is learning about life in the United States, this is a wonderful opportunity for us to learn more about Afghanistan - its history, culture, language, food.

A short lesson on Afghanistan's early history:

The land that is now known as Afghanistan has a long history of conquest and tribal warfare. Archeological evidence indicates human habitation at least 50,000 years ago. Some of the earliest human farming activity took place in the area. Indigenous herders and farmers may have formed tribal connections and established small local kingdoms. Urbanization may have begun as early as 3000 BCE. Early recorded history involved the Persians, who conquered the area in about 500 BCE. Alexander the Great of Macedonia followed in 329 BCE. The establishment of the Silk Road in the second Century BCE enabled trade to flourish between China and Europe, and this route crossed present-day Afghanistan, bringing silk and spices from Asia to Europe, and wool, gold, and silver in the opposite direction. This trade route was followed by Greek and Roman as well as Europeans such as Marco Polo. It is also thought that the Silk Road allowed the bacteria responsible for the Black Death pandemic in the 14th century to travel this route westward from Asia.

The Fifteenth Annual Bach-Tage

After two years without gathering in person due to the Covid pandemic, we are planning an in-person Bach-Tage June 4/5, 2022. Full vaccination against COVID 19 will be required of all participants. Prevailing conditions later this spring will determine what other measures we may need to put in place for safety.

Over the two days, June 4 & 5, we will study, rehearse and perform Bach's Cantata #78, Jesu, der du meine Seele, as well as a beautiful setting of the Magnificat by Johann Pachelbel during the Service of Evening Prayer Sunday, June 5. Yes, this is the program planned for Bach-Tage 2020! At last, we will get to sing this wonderful music!

Conductor John Eliot Gardner declares the opening chorus of Cantata 78 an equal of the opening choruses of Bach's settings of the Passion "in terms of scale, intensity, and power of expression."

The Pachelbel Magnificat is an elegant choral setting of the canticle.

Kathy Salzmann Romey will again be our conductor, with the musicians of the Bach-Tage orchestra and vocal soloists.

Following rehearsals on Saturday afternoon June 4, a program titled "Trios!," featuring Heather Cogswell, soprano; David Ross, baroque flute; Tulio Rondón, cello, piccolo cello and gamba; Marc Levine, violin; and Tami Morse, harpsichord will be presented.

Plan to attend. More information will be coming your way this spring. But put the dates on your calendar now!
