

All Saints Sunday

November 6, 2022 + 8:00 & 10:45 a.m.

Mount Olive Lutheran Church

Minneapolis, Minnesota

Welcome to Worship at Mount Olive!

Mount Olive is a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. It is a community in and of the city where all are welcome in every aspect of congregational life. We believe that worship is central to our life together, that our weekly gathering around Word and Sacrament strengthens us for our work as people of God in this and in every place.

An elevator to the lower and street levels can be found at the northwest corner of the education wing. Restrooms are located on the main floor and lower level. Turn right as you exit the narthex, then turn left. Restrooms are at the end of the hall, next to the elevator. Please ask an usher if you need assistance!

Mount Olive is equipped with a hearing assist loop. If you use a hearing aid equipped with a T-Coil, switch your device to T-Coil to access. If your aid does not have that option, small headsets are available. Ask an usher for assistance.

Helps for following the liturgy: Numbers marked with the word “page...” in small case are in the front portion of the hymnal at the bottom left and right corners of the page. Numbers marked with the word “HYMN...” are in the back portion of the hymnal in the upper left and right corners of the page. Note that the psalms are numbered as hymns 1-150.

Hymns 901-1100 are found in the purple hymnal supplement, All Creation Sings, and are indicated as “ACS HYMN ...”

Focus on the Season: All Saints Sunday, year C

“With all the saints, with the choirs of angels and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn,” proclaims the Great Thanksgiving today, and in that mystery we gather for worship. On the festival of All Saints we remember with thanksgiving those who have lived and died in the faith, and we remind ourselves of the depth and breadth of the communion of saints who worship with us in this place, from the youngest child among us to those who now worship around the Throne. We are all together in worship of the God who has made us children of God and saints in light.

All Saints Sunday

November 6, 2022 † 8:00 & 10:45 a.m.

∞ The Entrance Liturgy

As we gather we remember the saints who have gone before us. If you wish to light candles in memory of loved ones, please come to the columbarium in the north transept or to the baptismal font either before or during the following music. An assistant will help you. The candles are lighted and placed in recognition of the eternal life promised to all the baptized in the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

PRELUDE: “Stèle pour un enfant défunt,” from Tryptique Louis Vierne

“Funeral Ikos” John Tavener

Why these bitter words of the dying, O brethren, which they utter as they go hence? I am parted from my brethren. All my friends do I abandon, and go hence. But whither I go, that understand I not, neither what shall become of me yonder: only God, who hath summoned me knoweth. But make commemoration of me with the song: Alleluia.

But whither now go the souls? How dwell they now together there? This mystery have I desired to learn, but none can impart aright. Do they call to mind their own people, as we do them? Or have they forgotten all those who mourn over them and make the song: Alleluia?

We go forth on the path eternal, and as condemned, with downcast faces, present ourselves before the only God eternal. Where then is comeliness? Where then is wealth? Where then is the glory of this world? There shall none of these things aid us, but only to say oft the psalm: Alleluia.

If thou hast shown mercy unto man, O man, that same mercy shall be shown thee there; and if on an orphan thou hast shown compassion, the same shall there deliver thee from want. If in this life the naked thou hast clothed, the same shall give thee shelter there, and sing the psalm: Alleluia.

Youth and the beauty of the body fade at the hour of death, and the tongue then burneth fiercely, and the parched throat is inflamed. The beauty of the eyes is quenched then, the comeliness of the face all altered, the shapeliness of the neck destroyed; and the other parts have become numb, nor often say: Alleluia.

With ecstasy are we inflamed if we but hear that there is light eternal yonder; that there is Paradise, wherein every soul of Righteous Ones rejoiceth. Let us all, also, enter into Christ, that all we may cry aloud thus unto God: Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING FOR THE BAPTIZED SAINTS OF ALL TIMES AND PLACES

(Please stand and face the font as the ministers enter)

☩ In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

☩ Amen.

☞ When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by Baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. (Romans 6:3-5)

☞ Thanks be to God.

☞ The Lord be with you.

☞ And also with you.

☞ Let us pray. We give thanks to you, O Lord our God, for all your servants and witnesses of time past: for Abraham and Sarah and Hagar; for Moses and Aaron and Miriam; for Joshua and Ruth and Rahab; for Deborah and Gideon, Hannah and Samuel; for Isaiah and all the prophets; for Mary, the mother of our Lord; for Mary Magdalene, the first apostle; for Peter, Paul and all the apostles; for Mary and Martha, Joanna and Susanna; for Stephen, the first martyr; for Phoebe and Lydia, Timothy and Philemon, and all leaders of the early Church; and for all the saints and martyrs in every time and in every land. In your mercy give us, as you gave them, the hope of salvation and the promise of eternal life; through the first-born from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord.

☞ Amen

☞ God of grace and glory, we remember before you today our brothers and sisters who have died in this past year, including:

+ Melvin Koshiol + + Charlotte Koshiol + + Susan Palo Cherwien +
+ Alberta Wick + + LeRoy Erlndson + + Charlotte Erlandson + + Evelyn Royce +

and all those whom we name before you aloud or in our hearts. We thank you for giving them to us to know and to love as companions in our pilgrimage on earth. In your boundless compassion, console us who remain. Give us faith to see that death has been swallowed up in the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ, so that we may live in confidence and hope until, by your call, we are gathered to our heavenly home in the company of all your saints; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

☞ Amen.

P Heavenly Father, we rejoice with thanksgiving at these new saints you have claimed as your own, the children of your love and grace, washed in the waters of Baptism this year:

+ Nels Carroll Rivard + + Lola Jean Rubis + + Felix Ichiro Davitt Dahl +
+ Oren Timothy Pipkorn + + Joanna Rose Dyson + + Isaac John O'Neill +
+ Annika Joy Beilke + + James Jefferson Beilke +

and for all those whom we name before you aloud or in our hearts.

Fill all your children with the Holy Spirit, that they lack no spiritual gift. Bless this water as we remember the gift of our own baptism into Christ. In your mercy, give us living water always, springing up as a fountain of salvation. Strengthen all who bear the sign of the cross, that we may always bear witness to you by word and life, and that together we may enter the joy which is prepared for all your faithful children; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord.

C Amen

As a sign of our own baptism into Christ's death and resurrection we are sprinkled with water. As you are sprinkled, turn to face the cross at the entrance.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray. Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

AT THE OFFERING

(seated)

“Thou Wilt Keep Them in Perfect Peace”

Samuel Wesley

*Thou wilt keep them in perfect peace, whose minds are stayed on thee,
The darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day.
The darkness and the light to thee are both alike.
God is light, and in God is no darkness at all.
O let my soul live, and it shall praise thee, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forevermore.*

The Commemorations

November 7: John Christian Frederick Heyer, died 1873; Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg, died 1719; Ludwig Nommensen, died 1918; missionaries - Heyer was the first missionary sent out by American Lutherans. After teaching at Gettysburg College and Seminary he was assigned to the Andhra region of India. A worker among the Tamil people on the southeast coast of India, Ziegenbalg was opposed both by local Hindus and by Danish authorities who favored a different missionary style. He was known for caring about the welfare of the whole person. Nommensen was born in northern Germany and was sent to Sumatra as a Lutheran missionary. Working among the Batak people, he translated the scriptures into their language, and honored their native culture.

November 11: St. Martin, Bishop of Tours, died 397 - Martin's pagan father enlisted him in the Roman army. Approached by a beggar, Martin cut his cloak in half and gave part to the man, whom he later understood as representing Christ. He asked to leave the army, but was jailed instead. After his release, he became a preacher, and later a bishop.

November 11: Søren Aabye Kierkegaard, teacher, died 1855 - Kierkegaard was a Danish theologian whose writings also gave rise to the modern philosophy of existentialism. He frequently attacked the complacency of the state church of his day, as well as its desire to be accepted by polite society rather than be a stumbling block.
