Welcome to Worship at Mount Olive!

Mount Olive is a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and a Reconciling in Christ congregation. It is a community in and of the city where all are welcome in every aspect of congregational life. We believe that the liturgy is central to our life together, that our weekly gathering around Word and Sacrament strengthens us for our work as people of God in this and in every place.

Focus on the Season: 25th Sunday after Pentecost, Lect. 32 B

All that we have – our lives, families, possessions, labor, and talents – comes from God and belongs to God. From the Christian perspective, we are not owners but stewards of all that the Creator has given us. And all that we have is given to us for the good of others. The divine economy works with equity for all, a hand always open to the poor, the outcast, and the forgotten ones. God’s bounty gives us the grace to hold nothing back in serving God.

The Commemorations

November 11: St. Martin, Bishop of Tours, died 397 - Martin's pagan father enlisted him in the Roman army. Approached by a beggar, Martin cut his cloak in half and gave part to the man, whom he later understood as representing Christ. He asked to leave the army, but was jailed instead. After his release, he became a preacher, and later a bishop.

November 11: Søren Aabye Kierkegaard, teacher, died 1855 - Kierkegaard was a Danish theologian whose writings also gave rise to the modern philosophy of existentialism. He frequently attacked the complacency of the state church of his day, as well as its desire to be accepted by polite society rather than be a stumbling block.

Today's Adult Forum, 9:30 am in the Chapel Lounge

“Jesus Saves--But How?” Part 2 of a 2-part series presented by George Heider.

Our congregational worship principles emphasize that we come before God as Trinity, in a "dance" consisting of a unity in diversity. Yet all too often, we imagine that there is only one way to think about the very heart of our faith, the saving work of Jesus Christ. Still, a close examination of the Scriptural witness shows that from its very beginning the Christian faith has thought of this work in discrete, yet ultimately complementary, ways.

Next Sunday's Forum, November 17

Lisa Ruff and the Global Ministry Committee will talk about Bethania Kids, a Mount Olive supported ministry serving women and children in India.
