Burial of the Dead

✠ Elizabeth Launder Wilcox Beissel ✠

Wednesday, July 23, 2025 + 11:00 a.m.

Mount Olive Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Born: May 12, 1939 + Baptized : August 4, 1940 + Died: June 6, 2025

We gather today to worship Almighty God, Father, ✠ Son and Holy Spirit, who now welcomes ✠ Elizabeth ✠ into her resurrection life.

The congregation is encouraged to participate in this service of worship by speaking the responses and prayers, and by singing the hymns. Please use this worship folder to follow the service.

The pall which is placed over the urn is a reminder of the white garment ✠ Elizabeth ✠ put on at her baptism, a sign that in baptism we are clothed with the righteousness of Christ, our hope in life and in death. The Paschal candle is a symbol of Christ's presence, granted through his saving death and resurrection, for Jesus' resurrection has now become ✠ Elizabeth's ✠ new and eternal life.

The Liturgy of Entrance

PRELUDE

AT THE ENTRANCE TO THE CHURCH

(Please stand and face the entrance to the church when the bell sounds.)

P Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation, who comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

G Thanks be to God.

P When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

P Eternal God, maker of heaven and earth, who formed us from the dust of the earth, who by your breath gave us life:

C We glorify you.

P Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, who suffered death for all humanity, who rose from the grave to open the way to eternal life:

C We praise you.

P Holy Spirit, author and giver of life, the comforter of all who sorrow, our sure confidence and everlasting hope:

C We worship you.

P To you, O blessed Trinity, be glory and honor, forever and ever.

C Amen.

As the hymn begins, the urn is sprinkled with water, recalling Elizabeth's baptism into Christ, and the congregation is also sprinkled.

GREETING AND PRAYER

P Let us pray. O God of grace and glory, we remember before you today our sister, Elizabeth. We thank you for giving her to us to know and to love as a companion in our pilgrimage on earth. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see that death has been swallowed up in the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ, so that we may live in confidence and hope until, by your call, we are gathered to our heavenly home in the company of all your saints; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
