

Welcome to Worship at Mount Olive!

Mount Olive is a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and a Reconciling in Christ congregation. It is a community in and of the city where all are welcome in every aspect of congregational life. We believe that the liturgy is central to our life together, that our weekly gathering around Word and Sacrament strengthens us for our work as people of God in this and in every place.

Focus on the Season: Ninth Sunday after Pentecost, Lect. 19 C

---

Abraham looked to the stars as God asked and trusted in God's promise, which Paul says is all you need as well. Trust God's promise. As Jesus says, “It is your Father's good pleasure to give the realm to you.” So don't be afraid – and be ready for action, because having the reign of God is living in the reign of God, ready to serve the One who loves you and calls you to follow.

✝ Liturgy of Installation

(standing)

PRESENTATION BY THE PRESIDENT

- ☞ After prayerful deliberation, we, Mount Olive Lutheran Church, have called Daniel Edward Schwandt to serve as the Cantor of Mount Olive.

ADDRESS

- ☞ A reading from Colossians: Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, the Father, through him.

Colossians 3:15-17

Our Lord Jesus, who came to us as a servant, calls us to faith and a life of loving service to our neighbor. Daniel, you come among us as one called to be our Cantor, to proclaim the Gospel in music and song, to lead the praise and worship of almighty God in this community of faith, to teach and to guide us, and to call us through your gifts and leadership into a deeper worship in the presence of the Triune God in whom we live and move and have our being.

EXAMINATION AND COMMITMENT

- ☞ Daniel, in the presence of this assembly will you commit yourself to this new trust and responsibility, in the confidence that it comes from God?
- ☞ I will, and I ask God to help me.

P Will you carry out this ministry in accordance with the Holy Scriptures and with the confessions of the Lutheran church, and in harmony with the constitutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America?

R I will, and I ask God to help me.

P Will you be diligent in your study of the Holy Scriptures and faithful in your use of the means of grace and in prayer?

R I will, and I ask God to help me.

P Trusting in God's care, will you seek to grow in love for those you serve, strive for excellence in your skills, and adorn the Gospel of Jesus Christ with a godly life?

R I will, and I ask God to help me.

P Almighty God, who has given you the will to do these things, graciously give you the strength and compassion to perform them.

C Amen.

The cantor-elect faces the congregation; all stand.

P People of God, people of Mount Olive, will you receive Daniel into this ministry as one sent to serve in the Church of Jesus Christ?

C We will, and we ask God to help us.

P Will you pray for him, help and honor him for his work's sake, and in all things strive to live together in the peace and unity of Christ?

PRAYER

P Let us pray. O God of majesty, whom saints and angels delight to worship: Strengthen and bless your servant Daniel, who seeks through your gift of music to perfect our praises and to proclaim your Word with power. ## The Commemorations

August 10: St. Lawrence, deacon, martyr, died 258 - As one of the seven deacons of the church at Rome, Lawrence was responsible for the church's financial matters and for the care of the poor. Asked by the emperor to gather the church's treasure, he presented a collection of orphans, lepers, and the like. The enraged emperor had him put to death.

August 11: St. Clare, Abbess of San Damiano, died 1253 - A contemporary of Francis of Assisi, Clare and a growing number of companions established a women's Franciscan community, called the Order of Poor Ladies, or Poor Clares. She inspired other women to pursue spiritual goals.

August 13: Florence Nightingale, died 1910; Clara Maass, died 1901; renewers of society - Nightingale was born in England, and horrified her wealthy family by deciding to become a nurse. She led a group of nurses in ministering in the midst of the Crimean War and worked for hospital reform. Maass, a native of New Jersey, was also a war nurse, and volunteered as a subject for research on yellow fever. She died of the disease.

August 14: Maximilian Kolbe, died 1941; Kaj Munk, died 1944; martyrs - Father Kolbe was a Franciscan priest arrested by the Nazis and confined in Auschwitz. Kolbe gave generously of his meager resources and finally volunteered to be starved to death in place of another man. A Danish Lutheran pastor and playwright, Munk strongly denounced the Nazis who occupied Denmark in the Second World War. His sermons and articles helped to show the anti-Christian nature of the movement.

August 15: St. Mary, Mother of Our Lord - The church (including Martin Luther) honored Mary with the title Theotokos, meaning "God-bearer," for her role in giving birth to the Son of God. Her song, the Magnificat, speaks eloquently of God's lifting the lowly and feeding the hungry.
