Accent on Worship

Bishop's Christmas Message

In his Christmas message to the church, Bishop Curry delivers a children's sermon, describing the night when Jesus was born. "One silent night, far away in a town called Bethlehem, the stars twinkled brighter than ever. And the angels were there too. It was as if the whole sky was whispering: 'Something wonderful is happening.'"

Have you ever heard a whisper?

"Hello!"

Can you all whisper back to me?

Whispers are quiet, gentle, almost like a secret. You have to lean in close to hear them. And I wonder if it's possible for the heavens to whisper at Christmas?

One silent night, far away, in a town called Bethlehem, the stars twinkled brighter than ever. And the angels were there, too. It was as if the whole sky was whispering: "Something wonderful is happening ..."

Let's all look up at the ceiling like we're looking at the stars.

Can you twinkle your fingers like stars?

Now let's whisper together, "Something wonderful is happening!"

The heavens weren't shouting. They weren't making a big noise.

They were whispering, because whispers make us stop, listen and pay attention.

And what was the whispering about? A baby. A tiny baby lying in a manger. His name was Jesus.

Can you pretend to rock a baby in your arms?

The night Jesus was born, the shepherds heard the whisper in the sky when the angels sang. The Wise Men sensed the whisper in the star that guided them. And Mary and Joseph felt the whisper in their hearts: "This child is special. This child is God's gift."

Sometimes we think God only speaks in loud voices or through big miracles. But Christmas reminds us that God often whispers. God whispers love and kindness and peace. Can you think of one kind thing you could whisper to someone this week?

So, this Christmas, listen closely. The heavens are still whispering: "Jesus is here. God loves you. Share that love with the world."

Let's all whisper together: "Jesus is here."

Now say "God loves us" in a joyful voice!

Amen.

Presiding Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Winter Wear Needed!

This time of year, Neighborhood Ministry is often asked by our neighbors about warm clothes for those who come to get assistance. If you have any coats, jackets, scarves, gloves/mittens/ or hats to donate, please know we can put them to good use. Drop them off in the coat room adjacent to the kitchenette on the upper level. There is an area marked for coat donations. Mittens, gloves, hats, and scarves can be shared in the bins in the coat room. Thank you!

January Neighborhood Ministries Partner of the Month: Our Saviour's Community Services

Our Saviour's Community Services, a non-profit founded by our sister congregation, operates a shelter, which in the last year has served a vital role in providing housing for those experiencing homelessness who have recently been released from the hospital. In addition, they provide transitional housing for women who have experienced domestic abuse and permanent supportive housing for men and women who live with a mental illness, physical disability, and/or substance use disorders. In addition, Mount Olive volunteers provide meals at the Our Saviour's shelter once a month.

Mount Olive has chosen to support each of our Partners of the Month through a yearly contribution from our budget, and often, like our partner this month, we also volunteer in support of their work. On top of those financial and labor contributions, we encourage any member who wishes to donate over and above our budgeted amount to those partners doing work in their areas of passion and concern. You can do this using your offering envelopes or our online giving system. All additional contributions to our partner of the month will be distributed to the partner for the month in which the contribution is received.

For more information about Our Saviour's work, please visit their website at <https://oscs-mn.org>. For more information about the teams from Mount Olive serving meals at the shelter, contact Elaine Halbardier at ech914@comcast.net.

A Little Child Shall Lead Them

This coming Sunday, December 28, the church will commemorate the Holy Innocents, Martyrs, the boys of Bethlehem slaughtered by King Herod, as he sought to eliminate the newborn king whose birth the magi had announced to him.

It's always the children who fare worst when humans engage in what Josef Goebbels called "Totalkrieg," Total War. But that's the only kind we moderns seem to know. Whether in Gaza, Ukraine, or Sudan, it is the children who are dying and being maimed and traumatized by the thousands. What's to be done?

That question was a significant motivator for me as I participated in our congregation's recent visitation to Palestine. We do not sit in the councils of the great. But we can — and did — bear witness with our presence that the meek matter. We sought to convey to those whom we met at Dar al-Kalima University, in the village of Battir, and in the Aida Refugee Camp that how they fare is important to us. This is true of no one more fully than of the children.

As we made our way through Bethlehem and its environs, a bit of linguistic trivia came to me with force. Just about everyone — scholars included — holds that the meaning of "Bethlehem" (Hebrew bēt leḥem) is "house of bread." But there is another possibility, coming from a second root lhm in Hebrew. That second root means "war," as in milḥāmâ, "battle." Historically speaking, I have little doubt that "house of bread" lay at the heart of the name of the "little town." But the reality on the ground now? House of bread or house of war? The jury's still out on that one.

This season and the commemoration to be observed this Sunday remind us that God has a stake in the outcome. God chose to commit to full participation in the fate of the human race as a child — moreover, as a poor child in an occupied land. That child assures us that God is fully with us. God is with us all, but especially with today's children similarly situated.
